

Summer Reading 2015
Upper School Humanities
Humanities I

Unit: The Call to Adventure

Task 1 - Summer Reading: Ishmael

Time: 10 to 15 hours

Skills: Reading and Writing

Disposition: Curiosity

Activities:

- a) Summarize what you think are the novel's five major points. Write this in your thinking journal.
- b) Tell someone outside of the class of Wooster '19 about Ishmael. Write in your thinking journal about this experience.

For now, your "Thinking Journal" should be an electronic document - preferably a google document but anything you can cut and paste will work.

Task 2 - The Hero's Journey

Time: 2 to 4 hours (depending on story selected)

Skills: Reading and Thinking

Disposition:

Activities: What is a Hero? (if this link does not work, use this PDF Version What is a Hero?)

If you have questions or need help, email bill.rexford@woosterschool.org

Task 3 - I wish my teacher knew this about me..."

Time: 1 hour

Skills: Writing

Disposition: Honesty and Self Awareness

Activity: "I wish my teachers knew this about me." This prompt is for you to share something you really want us to know about you. It can be what you are most excited about freshman year, what worries you, success you have had, failures, whatever you want to share with us. This document can be done electronically or handwritten.